School Overview

At Serviceton South State School we are committed to doing 'Our Best Always'. We do this by including, supporting and challenging our students in a caring and stimulating learning environment, where children are encouraged to reach their full potential by developing the knowledge and skills necessary for success in school and future work and life. We focus on improving student learning in Literacy and Numeracy as well as other curriculum areas and students have access to a diverse range of activities which include a successful instrumental music program, sporting teams on Gala Days and a strong student leadership program. We value our community partnerships and have a parent room, a breakfast club, and a homework club.

The quality of our school's curriculum, interpersonal relationships and organisation directly influences behaviours, opportunities and learning outcomes for our students. A positive responsible behaviour plan assists to provide a supportive school environment, which affects the learning outcomes of students and takes account of the diversity of the student population and the needs of individual students. Behaviours are modelled and taught so that students are guided towards a more self-disciplined approach to life. Students are encouraged to participate in extra-curricular activities such as chess, choir, gardening in our community garden, green room photography, drama and cultural dance. Our school expectations are We Learn, We Care, We Are Team Players.

Characteristics of the Student Body

Overview

Serviceton South State School is a proudly multicultural school. Our students were born in 22 different countries, including Australia, and speak 34 different languages. Families represent cultures such as Samoan and other Pacific Islander, including Polynesian and other island groups, Vietnamese, African, Middle-Eastern, Central and South-East Asian, and Aboriginal and Torres Strait island people. We celebrate diversity with Harmony Day, NAIDOC, Multicultural Day and other school performances.

Students come mainly from neighbouring suburbs of Inala, Forest Lake, Doolandella, Richlands and Carole Park. Most students walk to school. Bicycles and scooters are also used by students. Some parents coming from further away use personal vehicles. A council bus service is available in a nearby street.

Classes are a mix of composite and single year level classes. A Special Education Program for students with disabilities and an English as an Additional Language/Dialect program is in place, supporting students in inclusive classrooms as a preferred approach. Students are also supported by a Support Teacher Literacy and Numeracy, Guidance Officer and Chaplain.

Curriculum Delivery

Our Approach to Curriculum Delivery

- The curriculum framework is based on C2C for English, Mathematics, Science, Geography and History.
- The Essential Learning Areas of HPE, Technology and The Arts round out the curriculum.

- The long term plan is to move away from C2C and to plan directly from the Australian Curriculum.
- Teachers undertake planning for differentiation in year level groups, with support from the Deputy Principal and Literacy Coach.

Co-curricular Activities

- Swimming program – all students participate in a swimming program with qualified instructors at the Corinda Pool;
- Instrumental music – woodwind, drums and brass instruments are taught through this program;
- Breakfast club - offered to students once a week to promote balanced diet and food for learning;
- Chess club – developing concentration, thinking skills and community engagement;
- Gardening program – market gardening promoting student engagement, resilience, planning.

How Information and Communication Technologies are used to Assist Learning

Students have access to computer hubs from every classroom and these are used to enhance learning and research activities. Regular lessons in the computer lab allow students to explore and become competent in the use of a range of software applications. The use of touch screen technology is being developed, with a focus on support for students with particular learning needs and students in the lower school. A green-screen room allows upper school students to use digital photographic techniques for various projects and lower school student use of computers to assist literacy and numeracy goals. A Typing Tutor is available for all students to improve keyboarding skills.

Social Climate

Overview

Serviceton South State School promotes a friendly and respectful climate. Despite the large cultural mix, the school promotes tolerance and the valuing of different student backgrounds. Celebrations spotlight the cohesive nature of the school with inclusive practices that result in high level student participation across a range of activities. Students display a strong sense of teamwork and commitment to the school.

The Positive behaviour for Learning (PBL) framework provides a data driven, systems based approach to managing behaviour with reward and consequence systems well documented and embedded across the school. The school's expectation of We Learn, We Care, We Are Team Players and the sapphire and gem systems are well received in the school community. In 2017, 95% of parents agreed that their child feels safe at Serviceton South State School.

Playground areas and supervision allow for contact between family groups and cultural mix of students, while age-group separation in activities to promote safe play and social interaction are a feature of the school.

Students with disabilities, and students from different ethnic backgrounds, as well as male and female students welcome the opportunity to promote themselves as leaders and participants in band, as house captains, and in school leader positions as well as various roles to enhance recognition of skills and interests that are not necessarily leadership roles.

Parent and community engagement

All new enrolments meet with the Principal prior to enrolment. This enables us to get to know students and place them in the most appropriate class, as well as provide information to parents and caregivers, and answer any questions about the school. Vietnamese, Samoan and African language Teacher Aides are available to interpret during these conversations, and a tele-interpreter is available for other languages.

Parents and caregivers are invited to attend the Community Welcome, in Term 1 of each year which includes an address by the Principal about the school priorities for the coming year, a visit to classrooms, and a free barbeque dinner. Thereafter parents are invited to meet with teachers twice per year to focus on the strengths and future needs of their child during Parent/Teacher Meetings. There are also opportunities for informal discussions about the anecdotal progress and needs of students. Parents are invited to attend special days and school events. Parents are informed about issues as and when they arise so as to have a coordinated approach to student education. School signs, a newsletter, school events and telephone communication enhance communication with the school community. Parents are also invited to become involved in various extra-curricular activities, celebrations, and community events, including award presentations. The Parents and Citizen's association is involved in the school and is a consultative group for school development.

The Special Education Program teacher meets with AVTs, parents and caregivers, and teaching staff to negotiate adjustments for students with disabilities. Case meetings are also held regularly for students requiring interagency support.

Respectful relationships programs

The school has developed and implemented programs that focus on appropriate, respectful and healthy relationships.

Positive Behaviour for Learning lessons include personal safety and bullying foci at different times of the year. Anti-bullying lessons occur during the lead up to the National Day of Action Against Violence and Bullying and at other times according to monthly data analysis by the PBL Team. The Daniel Morcombe personal safety lessons have also been incorporated into the PBL lessons and a selection are implemented during the school year.

Serviceton South State School also has an active relationship with the QPS through the Adopt-a-Cop program, with cyber-safety, forensics and One Punch Can Kill presentations delivered throughout 2017.

School Disciplinary Absences

The following table shows the count of incidents for students recommended for each type of school disciplinary absence reported at the school.

Type	2015	2016	2017
Short Suspensions – 1 to 10 days	20	57	86
Long Suspensions – 11 to 20 days	0	0	0

Environmental Footprint

Reducing the school's environmental footprint

While electricity consumption has remained relatively stable over the past three financial year periods, water consumption has fluctuated significantly, leading to investigation into water use across the school.

ENVIRONMENTAL FOOTPRINT INDICATORS
Years	Electricity kWh	Water kL
2014-2015	153,078	494
2015-2016	151,427	124
2016-2017	151,537	1,267

The consumption data is compiled from sources including ERM, Ergon reports and utilities data entered into OneSchool by each school. The data provides an indication of the consumption trend in each of the utility categories which impact on the school's environmental footprint.

Student Attendance Distribution

The proportions of students by attendance range:

Description of how non-attendance is managed by the school

Non-attendance is managed in state schools in line with the Department of Education procedures, Managing Student Absences and Enforcing Enrolment and Attendance at State Schools and Roll Marking in State Schools, which outline processes for managing and recording student attendance and absenteeism.

Non-attendance is managed in state schools in line with the DETE policies, SMS-PR-029: Managing Student Absences and SMS-PR-036: Roll Marking in State Schools, which outline processes for managing and recording student attendance and absenteeism.

When students are absent for several days without reasonable explanation the class teacher attempts to contact the parents/caregivers.

When there are persistent absences without reasonable explanation, or there is a pattern of non-attendance then a meeting is called with the parents/caregivers to discuss the non-attendance. At such a meeting, it is usual for the school administration officers and parents/caregivers to work together to find ways to support improved student attendance. Staff regularly refer to EQ policy issues around Every Day Counts so that students are consistently reminded of the need to be at school to learn.

With the high numbers of students who have overseas family commitments in our school, extended absences by some students has been by arrangement with parents as per departmental policy and agreements. The option most used is that of an expectation that students will continue with work assigned them by their class teachers, and that this may involve some commitment by the parents to assist in this teaching where needed.

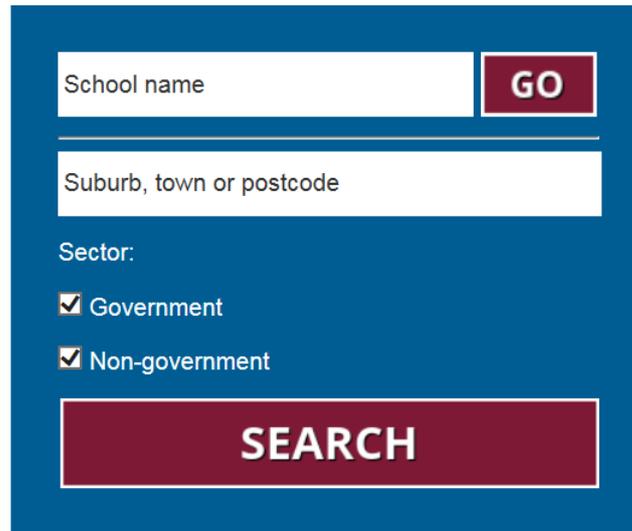

A range of motivational strategies around measuring and improving class level of attendance were implemented in 2016 aimed at enhancing student attendance, including weekly attendance trophies on parade, a data wall, and acknowledgement of 100% attendance.
